

MSW 540 : Social Work with Communities and Organizations

This generalist course prepares students for direct social work practice with organizations and communities. Students become familiar with and use theories, evidence, and fundamental skills to develop competence in their practice with organizations and communities. Students will work in all phases of practice, from engagement through termination, with special attention given to ethical standards and cultural competence.

Credits 3