

Transfer Students

The ability to accept transfer students seeking entry into a graduate program will be evaluated on an individual basis and will be considered only when space permits. Three courses (up to 9 graduate credits) may be transferred from other programs after evaluation by the registrar. Further information is available from the Admissions Office.